

Queen Anne's County Code of Conduct/Sports Field Rules and Regulations

The Queen Anne's County Department of Parks and Public Landings and the Queen Anne's County Recreation Division have adopted a policy in regards to "ALL" youth and adult sports leagues. All leagues and recreation programs have been designed to incorporate and reflect four major elements:

- Fun
- Self-Improvement
- Sportsmanship
- Skill Development

The Code of Conduct Board will review any reported code of conduct violations by QAC Parks & Recreation Divisions, youth and adult league players, coaches and spectators using Queen Anne's County Parks or participating in Queen Anne's County Recreation sports/events. If a league takes any action against an individual with regard to a code of conduct violation, the league must notify the Parks and Recreation Division of the action within forty-eight (48) hours of the ruling. The staff will inform the board members of said ruling. If more than three (3) members disagree with a league decision the board will hold a special meeting with the league and individual in question within ten (10) days of the incident.

- OVERVIEW – QAC Code of Local Regulations Parks and Recreation, Article 22:17
 - Review Board defined. In this article, "Review Board" means the Code of Conduct Review Board.

- Field/Facility Reservation Procedures

The demand for Queen Anne's County fields is growing greater every year. It is imperative that each "APPLICANT" request fields that are needed to accommodate their programs. After reviewing the initial permit, applicants may return field, dates, and /or times that will not be used. Once the final permit is issued, the permit holder will be required to pay for the fields, regardless of their future use. Neither individual nor groups will be refunded or credited if and when they return fields, dates, and/or times once the final permit has been issued.

- Seasonal Applicants

- Submit the field reservation requests by the deadline stated in the submission deadlines.
- The applicant will receive the initial permit from the Parks Department.
- The applicant should review the initial permit and contact the Parks Department with any additional, deletions or changes by the adjustment deadline.
- The applicant must submit payment by the payment deadlines or the applicant forfeits the rights to the fields.
- After the final permit has been issued, additional fields, dates or times will not be issued until payment is received.

- One-Time User Applicants

- Submit the field reservation request by the deadline stated in the submission deadlines.
- The Parks Department will contact the applicant or will send the initial permit to the applicant for review.
- Once the applicant approves the initial permit, payment is due.

Queen Anne's County Code of Conduct/Sports Field Rules and Regulations

- The final permit will be issued once payment has been received; an initial permit with payment dues does not qualify as final permit.

- Fee Schedule

All Applicants permitted field space by the Parks Department will be charged usage fees.

The fees recover some cost associated with the additional benefits provided to the Applicant, including maintenance, utilities, facility preparation and the reservation process.

Seasonal Applicants must submit in writing (mail, email, fax or in person) initial field requests which are due by the following dates:

- February 15th for March–July requests
- July 24th for August –November requests
- November 15th for December –February.

Game schedules and all fees are due prior to the first game.

One-Time User fees are due prior to the issuing of the final permit.

Additional fees may apply for extra services provided by the Parks Department (extra lining/maintenance, etc.).
